

ANGELA KING

Represented by The NWT Group
817-987-3600, JanAllen@theNWTgroup.com

Broadcast Experience

2002 to 2012 - KCPQ-TV Seattle, WA

Reporter/Anchor

Creator of widely distributed, Emmy-Award winning news series "What Would You Do?"
"Go-to" breaking news reporter and fill-in anchor for PM, weekend & 5.5 hour long morning shows

Strong story-teller who advanced stories by finding exclusive angles/interviews

Updated station website with latest information/video

Edited video clips/video timelines using Final Cut Pro

1999 to 2002 - KOB-TV Albuquerque, NM

Anchor/Reporter

Weekend morning show anchor and primary fill-in anchor for weekday morning show

Reporter responsible for covering breaking news in the field and on the anchor desk

Public figure who enterprised story ideas and established firm community contacts

1996 to 1999 - NorthWest Cable News Seattle, WA & Portland, OR

Video Journalist/Health News Anchor

"One-Man Band" responsible for generating/advancing stories seen in WA, OR, ID, CA, MT, & AK .

Reporter, photographer, and video editor (AVID Editing System)

Anchor, producer, photographer, & editor of half-hour documentary (Lena: A New Face, A New Life)

Health News Anchor

1994 to 1996 - KING-TV, Seattle, WA

Writer/Segment Producer

Morning, 5pm, 6:30pm and 11pm news writer

Producer tasked with writing and determining video content for morning show "cut-ins"

Assignment desk assistant

Honors

2011 Emmy Award - Informational News Segment: "What Would You Do?"

2004 Society of Professional Journalists (Region 10) – Same-day Feature

2002 Office of the Mayor, Albuquerque, NM: Broadcasting Achievement Award

1994 University of Washington: EOP President's Award

Education

1994 University of Washington - Double Bachelor of Arts/Cum Laude in Communications (Broadcast Journalism) & American Ethnic Studies. Phi Beta Kappa & Mortar Board Honor Society.