

Nick Allard

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 CarolynKane@NWTgroup.com

EXPERIENCE:

Weekday Morning Meteorologist, KIRO

Oct 2015 – Present

- Produced accurate and informative weather stories, using excellent communication skills, ability to implement technology into my presentation.
- Produce content for social media

Weekday Morning Meteorologist, KGW

Aug 2009 – Oct 2015

- Produced accurate and informative weather stories, using excellent communication skills, ability to implement technology into my presentation.
- Member of the AMS with an AMS Seal.

Weekend Morning/Weekday Meteorologist, KING/NWCN

May 2006 – Aug 2009

- KING 5 Weekend Morning Meteorologist & 3 days a week NWCN Meteorologist.
- Played the go-to-meteorologist role with the ability to work quickly and efficiently under pressure.
- Anchored live daily 4:30am newscast for Portland affiliate KGW. Jun 2007-Dec 2008
- In charge of the Subaru Weather In The Classroom program. Set up and visited multiple schools per month to explain science, TV, and meteorology to students. Apr 2007- May 2009
- Field producer for “Ask Ciscoe Live.” Traveled to Spokane to shoot, edit and turn 30-minute show in one day.
- Rebuilt and redesigned all on-air weather graphics for NorthWest Cable News

Digital Learning Commons

Aug 2008 – Aug 2009

- Conducted training sessions for educators in Washington State.
- Developed relationships and a reputation of trust among teachers to help them implement the newest educational technology in the classroom.
- The DLC was a non-profit company dedicated to improving the use of technology in the classroom for all Washington State schools.

Main Weather Anchor/Reporter, KVEW/KAPP

Aug 2003 – May 2006

- Led the weather team during a complete redesign of our on-air “look” May 2004-May 2006
- General assignment reporter: Aug 2003-May 2004.
- Super Bowl XL: Spent week in Detroit writing and telling compelling stories about the Seahawks during the Super Bowl. Feb 2006

- KVEW-42/KAPP-35 Extreme Yard Makeover: Hosted 3 specials that changed the lives of families in need. Told their stories and worked with contractors who renovated their yards and homes. Aug 2005-May 2006

EDUCATION:

Mississippi State University

Sept 2004 – Aug 2007

Certificate in Meteorology

Washington State University

May 2003

Edward R. Murrow School of Communication, BA in Broadcast News/Production

EDUCATION EXPERIENCE:

Cable 8 Productions/Executive Board

Aug 1999 – Aug May 2003

- Responsible for production and operations of the television station Cable 8, a student run station reaching 20,000 viewers.
- Supervised Board of Directors with 30 people, 8 shows per semester.
- Raised over $60,000.00 to convert to digital TV.
- Produced, directed and hosted TV shows.

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

- EMCEE FUNDRAISING EVENTS: Serve as the Emcee of 5-10 fundraising events, charity auctions and volunteer groups each year. May 2004-Now
- MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY ASSOCIATION: Wrote and told stories of families suffering from a Neuromuscular Disease while co-hosting two MDA-Telethons. Emceed various fundraising events and attended emcee conference in Los Angeles. Sep 2004-May 2006
- BOARD OF DIRECTORS SAFE HARBOR CRISIS NURSERY: The nursery is a non-profit organization and provides emergency child-care for the community. Mar 2004-May 2006

AWARDS:

- College of Liberal Arts Outstanding Graduating Senior Award
- Edward R. Murrow Award
- W. Neal Robison Award
- Calvin A. Watson Scholarship
- Washington State Association of Broadcasting Scholarship