

Ayana Harry

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 CarolynKane@NWTgroup.com

Experience

Reporter, WPIX, New York, NY January 2014 – Present

- Cover live breaking news for the PIX11 News at 5pm, 6pm, and 10pm. Enterprise, produce, and report exclusive television packages, series' and digital content. Reported live for PIX11 and all Tribune Media affiliates from San Bernardino, California after December 2015 terror attacks, traveled to Haiti to produce and report an exclusive series on the 5 year anniversary of Haitian Earthquake, and was the only NYC television reporter to cover Eric Garner's case in its entirety.

Reporter/Anchor, WTIC, Hartford, CT January 2011 – January 2014

- New Haven Bureau Reporter for daily evening newscast covering breaking news and features. Contributed to live team coverage for top stories including Newtown school shooting and Hurricane Sandy. Nominated for two New England Emmy Awards for health/science specialty reports.

Digital Journalist, ABC News, Northeast Bureau, New York, NY June 2010 – January 2011

- Travelled extensively throughout the region to report, shoot, edit, and feed video from the field for network newscasts. Spent weeks on assignment for major national stories including the BP Oil Spill.

Associate Producer, ABC News, Northeast Bureau, New York, NY December 2008 – June 2010

Off Air Reporter, ABC News, New York, NY June 2008 – August 2008

Senior Production Associate, ABC News, New York, NY January 2007 – December 2008

Desk Assistant, ABC News, New York, NY June 2006 – January 2007

Education

Princeton University, Princeton, NJ

Bachelor of Arts, Politics

Skills

- Proficient in Avid, Final Cut Pro 7
- Experienced and skilled in camera work and non-linear editing
- Social media and online journalism skills