

Bianca Castro

Represented by The NWT Group / 817.987.3600

Experience

Anchor/Medical Reporter, KXAS, Dallas, TX

March 2014 – Present

- Anchor daily 4 p.m. newscasts
- Report daily health and wellness stories
- Report weekly health stories for Telemundo
- Highlights:
 - Dallas Police Shooting breaking news anchor
 - Orlando Nightclub Shooting field anchor
 - “Under the Microscope: The Zika Crisis” Producer, Reporter, Anchor
 - Mental Health: On Assignment, special reporting
 - Health Connection Franchise

Anchor/Reporter, WFTV/WRDQ, Orlando, FL

October 2010 – March 2014

- Anchored morning newscasts on WRDQ
- Turned daily reports for WFTV evening newscasts.
- Fill-in anchored on WFTV newscasts.

Primary Anchor, KRIS, Corpus Christi, TX

April 2006 – October 2010

- Anchored 6 & 10 Newscasts
- Additional duties as reporter
- Produced newscasts on a regular, fill-in basis

Reporter/Anchor, KWTX, Waco, TX

May 2004 – March 2006

- Back up anchor for all newscasts
- General Assignment Reporter
- Primary political reporter with focus on covering President George W. Bush while in Crawford, Texas

Anchor/Producer, Telemundo 26, Waco, TX

November 2002 – May 2004

- Created first 30 minute Spanish news program in Waco and worked alone gathering news, writing scripts and editing show
- Produced/anchored/edited daily news cut-ins as well as shoot/edit public service announcements
- Emceed community events, such as “Fiesta Waco,” “Cinco de Mayo,” and various charity concerts

Pledge Drive Host, KWBU (PBS), Waco, TX

May 2003

- Appeared as guest host during live pledge drive

Education

Baylor University, Waco, TX

Bachelor of Arts, Telecommunications

Skills

- Bilingual in Spanish
- ENPS
- Newstar
- Quantel
- Final Cut Pro
- Sony Clipedit
- Adobe Premiere
- Non-Linear

Awards

- Texas Medical Association, Anson Journalism Award Winner, 2018, 2017
- Lone Star EMMY for Breaking News Coverage Winner, 2017
- Lone Star EMMY for Health Reporting Winner, 2016
- Health Care Television & Radio Journalism Award Finalist, 2016
- James S. Hogg Journalism Award for Mental Health Reporting, July 2005