

Nia Harden

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 SandraRichards@NWTgroup.com

Experience

Reporter, KWTX, Waco, TX

July 2014 – Present

- Senior reporter for Bell County
- Write, shoot and edit compelling news stories
- Experience with on the scene traffic reporting
- Covered multiple stories that went national
- Awarded an honorable mention by the Associate Press for investigative reporting
- Recognized by the Texas Association of School Board's Media Honor Scroll and various local organizations

Broadcast Liaison/Guest Relations Coordinator

July 2012 – June 2014

Department of Defense, Yongsan, Korea

- Hosted a weekly radio show that promoted military hotels
- Wrote scripts for television and radio programming while helping assist in converting it into a video production
- Event planning and project coordinating
- Managed the company's social media sites

Reporter, KEPR/KIMA, Pasco, WA

April 2011 – October 2011

- Developed and planned live or taped video segments
- Compiled data from various sources, investigated, analyzed and wrote stories
- Operated studio cameras and recorders while editing with a nonlinear system to create news story projects
- Posted and wrote stories and scripts to the web

Internships

WTVR, Richmond, VA

- Worked closely with reporters and independently to gather information to create new stories and video projects. Wrote structured and organized stories. Ran audio, prompter and studio cameras for the newscasts. Made beat calls and assisted on the assignment desk. Continually checked completed video projects to ensure they were done satisfactory.

WWBT, Richmond, VA

- Wrote structured and organized stories. Operated studio cameras and recorders while editing with a nonlinear system to create news story projects. Ran audio, prompter and studio cameras for the newscasts. Make beat calls, assist on the assignments desk. Continually checked completed video projects to ensure they were done satisfactory. Worked closely with reporters and independently to gather information to create new stories and video projects.

CNN-The Situation Room

- Worked closely with Anchors and reporters primarily Wolf Blitzer and team to produce a daily newscast. Produced the daily “Wow” segment by using I-News technology to write scripts. Gathered motion and still clips and edited them into a produced video segment. Ran studio cameras, prompters, and floor directed.

Education

Troy University, San Antonio, TX

2012 – Present

Master Degree in International Relations

Virginia Union University, Richmond, VA

2007 – 2011

Bachelor Degree in Journalism

the
NWT
group

No Whining Talent