

Matthew Sedorff

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 SandraRichards@NWTgroup.com

Experience

Evening Anchor/Producer, KTWO, Casper, WY

May 2015 – Present

- Anchor Monday-Friday 5,6 and 10 PM Newscasts
- Produce Monday-Friday 5 and 10 PM Newscasts
- Manage K2TV social media pages
- Report live on the scene for top news stories
- Maintain the station's website
- Serve as a photographer and editor for my own stories
- Started my own monthly segment called "Worked Up"
- Emcee and judge events throughout the community
- Create and maintain contacts throughout the state
- Work in a leadership role within the newsroom

Weekend Anchor/Reporter, KTWO, Casper, WY

November 2014 – May 2015

- Anchored 5 and 10 PM newscasts Saturday and Sunday
- Found and created content
- Co-Produced all weekend Newscasts
- Shot, edited, and fronted both packages and readers

Weekday Reporter, KTWO, Casper, WY

May 2014 – November 2014

- Pitched and executed stories on a daily basis
- Carried out interviews with top city and Wyoming officials
- Reported live for top breaking news stories

Intern, NBC4 Sports Washington WRC, Washington, D.C.

2013 – 2014

- Assisted with field production, live shots, and features
- Cut, wrote, and helped produce nightly sports highlights
- Participated in press conferences with the Redskins, Capitals, Wizards, and more.
- Traveled to Denver, Atlanta, and Minneapolis to help produce Redskins highlights.

Education

The George Washington University, School of Media and Public Affairs

2011 – 2014

- Majored in Mass Communications Journalism
- Member of the George Washington University Varsity Baseball Team 2011-2013
- Graduated with a 3.5 GPA
- A member of the George Washington University Deans List in 2011, 2012, and 2013
- Recognized on the Commissioner's Atlantic 10 Athletics Honor Roll 2012, and 2013
- Co-host on GWU TV's program, "Unstoppable"

Auburn University

2010 – 2011

- Studied Pre-Broadcast Journalism After 30 credit hours, accumulated a 3.37 GPA

the
NWT
group

No Whining Talent