

Kathryn Burcham

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 LizHart@NWTgroup.com

Experience

Reporter/Anchor, WFXT, Boston, MA

January 2015 – Present

- General assignment reporter and fill-in anchor with an emphasis on investigative pieces
- Created a new beat area in southern New Hampshire and works daily with sources to break new stories in the market
- Helped re-launch Fox 25 News under CMG management

Reporter/Anchor, WSOC, Charlotte, NC

June 2011 – January 2015

- Consistently led the reporting team with enterprise stories and investigative pieces
- Managed social media to attract sources and communicate with viewers
- Frequent fill-in anchor

Reporter/Anchor, WHIO, Dayton, OH

February 2008 – May 2011

- Multi-platform journalist and fill-in anchor who developed a beat in western Ohio/eastern Indiana
- Awarded a national Edward R. Murrow award for exposing unsafe drinking water in that area that led to the award of a one million dollar grant

Bureau Chief, WMBD, Peoria, IL

August 2006 – February 2008

- Reporter who ran the Bloomington-Normal “Twin Cities” bureau whose stories led to the prosecution and conviction of a former city employee for theft and removal of sensitive information from a government website, and also exposed a cover-up inside a local police department

Education

Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, KY

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism & Spanish, Minor in History

Awards

- 2017 Regional Emmy Award: Outstanding Spot News
- 2010 Edward R. Murrow Award: Best Video Investigative Reporting
- 2010 Society of Environmental Journalists Award: National Outstanding TV Story
- 2009 Ohio Associated Press Award: Best Reporter