

Christopher Lovingood

Represented by The NWT Group
817.987.3600 DavidChristopher@NWTgroup.com

Experience

Anchor/Reporter, WTAE, Pittsburg, PA June 2018 – Present

Reporter, WBBH/WZVN, Fort Myers, FL June 2016 – June 2018

- Weekend reporter; shot own footage, edited stories, wrote web scripts, anchor digital channel news

Multimedia Journalist, WEEK/WHOI, Peoria, IL June 2014 – June 2016

- Shot video, wrote, edited packages, anchored/produced weekend shows, operated live truck, posted content to web, set up and covered stories, carried own equipment, produced and reported weekend weather on-air

Intern, Illinois Central College, East Peoria, IL August 2010 – July 2012

- Radio Station Intern – Produced a weekly radio show on WAZU, keeping charge of the public file, assisting other DJs on station programming, underwriter
- PR Intern – Worked with six other students to assist ICC with the 2012 NJCAA basketball competition; scheduled half-time events, keeping audience entertained, worked with vendors, managed hospitality room, wrote press releases for event, oversaw event flow

Reporter/Intern, Tri-States Public Radio, Macomb, IL January 2013 – May 2014

- Hired on as a reporter after internship for remainder of time at Western Illinois University; daily reporter, recorded automation, covered Presidential visit to Knox College

Education

Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL August 2012 – May 2014

Bachelor of Arts in Broadcasting. College of Communications, Broadcasting Department Scholar

Illinois Central College, East Peoria, IL May 2010 – July 2012

Associates Degree in Arts & Communication

Skills

- Microsoft Office, Audacity, Final Cut, Edius, Adobe Audition, Premiere, and After Effects, PC and Mac proficient, familiar with Twitch, YouTube, and Facebook LIVE, Social Media savvy

Awards

- 2014 NATAS Student Television Award
- 2014 INBA Student competition award recipient (3x)