

Maureen McCann

Represented by The NWT Group

CarolynKane@NWTgroup.com

817-987-3600

<https://NWTgroup.com/client/maureenmccann>

EXPERIENCE

Spectrum News 13, Orlando, FL

Weekday AM Meteorologist

September 2013 – Present

- Prepare and present forecasts on-air for News 13, an exclusive service to the subscribers of Spectrum Networks throughout Central Florida
- “Weather on the One’s” air every 10 minutes Monday through Friday from 5am – 11am with continuous coverage during breaking weather events
- Daily weathercasts also provided to Spectrum Networks national feed
- Provide radio segments for WMFE, the local NPR affiliate, and maintain web and social media accounts

National Disaster Preparedness Training Center, Honolulu, HI

Certified Instructor

November 2016 – Present

- Certified to teach Tornado, Hurricane, Flood and Coastal awareness courses
- Curriculum covers the basic understanding of these hazards including science, forecasting, warning, and preparedness

American Meteorological Society, Boston, MA

January 2016 – Present

Commissioner on Professional Affairs

- Volunteer position leading the Commission dedicated to the Society’s certification programs, along with private sector, operational and professional development areas. Serving on the Commission on Weather, Water and Climate Enterprise Steering Committee, AMS Early Career Leadership Academy, Planning Commission, Awards Oversight Committee, and Mentoring365 Committee through this role

Momentum Weather

Independent Weather Consultant

2008 – Present

- Independent weather consultant specializing in researching weather and climate data
- Weather-Ready Nation Ambassador

Seattle, WA

CapStone Solutions

April 2009 – As Needed

- Consult on weather and climate information focused on wind/solar analysis for renewable energy projects

KMGH, Denver, CO

Weekend AM Meteorologist

February 2011 – September 2013

- Prepared and presented forecasts on-air for 7News Saturday and Sunday mornings
- Primary fill-in for weekday morning weather and traffic. Often broadcasted weather on remote
- Produced an award winning severe weather special
- Daily duties also included reporting as necessary, producing web content, updating the nonstop weather channel, and maintaining social media accounts
- Conducted school visits and public appearances on a weekly basis

Professional Certifications

- AMS Certified Broadcast Meteorologist (CBM) designation, Certificate Number 272
- AMS Certified Consulting Meteorologist (CCM) designation, Certificate Number 721
- NWA Television Seal of Approval, Certificate Number 16051077
- AMS Television Seal of Approval, Certificate Number 1623, September 2006
- Ham radio operator, KN4MQP

Professional Honors

- Florida Association of Broadcast Journalists, 1st Place Weather Reporting I Series – Team Coverage, 2020
- Governor’s Hurricane Conference Dick Fletcher Media Award, 2020
- Florida Emergency Preparedness Association Media Award, 2018
- Florida Associated Press Awards, Hurricane Matthew Weather Reporting, Honorable Mention, 2017
- Bright House Networks “Mentor of the Year” Award, 2016
- Emmy Award Recipient, Heartland Chapter: 2012 “Best Magazine Program / Weather Program,” “Tracking Twisters”
- Colorado Assoc. of Broadcasters, 2012 “Best Single Program Including News Magazine Program,” “Tracking Twisters”
- Texas Associated Press, “Best Weathercast” 2nd Place, 2009
- Fellowship Recipient, National Press Foundation “Severe Weather Workshop,” Norman, OK, March 2007
- SKYWARN Official Trained Weather Spotter, February 2007
- Syracuse New Times “Best of Syracuse” 2004, 2005

Activities

- Full Member, American Meteorological Society (AMS), National Weather Association (NWA), Irish Meteorological Society
- Rotary Club of Lake Nona, 2018 - present
- Rotary Club of Baldwin Park, 2014 – 2017; voted 2018 President-Elect before relocating
- NOAA Weather Ready Nation Ambassador, 2017 - Present
- AMS Commissioner on Professional Affairs, 2016 - Present
- AMS Presidential Forum Committee, 2014-2016
- AMS Board of Early Career Professionals, 2-year ad-hoc member, 2013-2015
- AMS Board of Broadcast Meteorology, 4-year term 2009 – 2012, Chair 2013
- Co-Chair, Annual AMS Conference on Broadcast Meteorology, 2011 - 2012
- Spokesperson, the National Scoliosis Foundation
- Volunteer, Burton Snowboards Chill Foundation, 2011-2013
- South Central Texas Chapter of the AMS, Treasurer/Secretary 2008-2010
- Co-President, Cornell Chapter of the AMS, 2001-2002
- Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks 2007-2011
- Sierra Club

Social Media

MaureenMccann

@Maureen.Mccann.wx
6K followers

@MaureenMcCann13
6.4K followers

@MaureenMccann13
1.7K followers

News 8 Austin, Austin, TX

Weeknight Meteorologist

November 2006 – January 2011

- Prepared and presented forecasts on-air for Time Warner Cable's 24-hour regional news network and 24-hour Non Stop Weather network
- On-air segments ran six times each hour during "Weather on the 8's" with continuous live coverage during severe weather events
- Daily duties included updating weather related website content, 24-hour Non-Stop Weather Channel, and 24-hour Radar Channel
- Organized and facilitated an annual Girl Scout Day to assist girls in earning their weather badge

WTVH, Syracuse, NY

Weekday AM/Noon Meteorologist

January 2004 – October 2006

- Prepared and presented forecasts on-air for CBS5 This Morning, Fox 68 Eyewitness News at 7, and CBS5 News at Noon
- Also provided radio forecasts for WOLF Radio Disney, News Radio 1390, WSEN 92.1, and WZUN 102.1

Sentient Jet, Norwell, MA

Meteorologist and Flight Planning

September 2003 – December 2003

Representative

- Developed and maintained relationships with pilots, carriers, and Fixed-Based Operations
- Provided specialized weather presentations and forecasts for clients, pilots, and Command Center teams

WABI, Bangor, ME

Weekend Meteorologist

August 2002 – September 2003

- Prepared and presented forecasts on-air for the weekend newscasts
- Also served as a Production Assistant operating TelePrompTer, camera, and audio equipment

USAToday, Arlington, VA

Weather Internship

Summer 2001

WFXT-FOX 25, Boston, MA

Weather Internship

Summer 2000

EDUCATION

University of Central Florida – Orlando, FL

Master's in Emergency and Crisis Management, May 2020

Graduate Certificate in progress. Geographic Information Systems. Expected completion: May 2021

The University of Texas at Austin – Austin, TX

Graduate coursework, Environmental and Water Resources Engineering, 2009-2010

Cornell University – Ithaca, NY

Bachelor of Science, Atmospheric Science, May 2002