Caitlin has experience covering big news stories across the country. Combine that with her compassion for people and her competitive nature as a former collegiate volleyball captain, she's a reporting force to be reckoned with in the field. Caitlin has the ability to connect with community members in both English and Spanish. Her liberal arts education gives her a well-rounded edge. Her expertise having double majored in Women's Gender & Sexuality Studies and American Studies enable her to uniquely frame a story for viewers, especially in this era of social justice and change.
